2004 World Sport Kite Championships Berck sur Mer, France

Airzone won the draw and flew first and last on the first day. That means they called in for precision

So applause please for Head Judge Dave Hansen, and judges Peter Fiedler, John Mitchell, Susan Shar

Midway through competition on Day 1, the wind came to a complete standstill. Team Neo, a minute into

Precision had run smoothly but slowly though the morning and ballet got underway right after lunch. Sev

The flying was quite simply the best I have seen in years. It was great, but for the most part, it was not e
