International Rules Book Committee

IRBC Bulletin 1 25 July 2006

Welcome to the first bulletin from the IRBC. With this and future bulletins we would like to keep you up-to-date on the work of the IRBC. We will inform you of new releases to the ISK books. We will clarify issue presented to the IRBC and any other needed items.

On 25 July 2006, the IRBC released the new versions of the ISK books dated 1 August, 2006. The new books are:

- International Sport Kites Rules Book version 2.3 dated 1 August, 2006.
- International Sport Kites Judges' Book version 2.1 dated 1 August, 2006.
- International Sport Kites Compulsories Book version 2.1 dated 1 August, 2006.

The release of these books was approved by AJSKA, AKA and STACK before being released. STACK has announced that these books will become effective on 28 September, 2006.

These books are available at: www.worldsportkite.com/irbc.htm and temporarily at: http://home.arcor.de/johnmitchell//IRBC/

On 25 July 2006, two items were asked to be clarified in the new ISK Rules Book v2.3.

- 1. Page 10 item III.G.2 Member of Pairs and Teams. The words "limited to five members" will be interpreted as "limited to a maximum of five members".
- 2. Page 10 item III.G.2 Member of Pairs and Teams. In the case of injury, illness or similar situation, a member of a pair or team may be replaced by someone who did not fly the other discipline. This is at the discretion of the competition Chief Judge.

On 23 July 2006, the STACK representative Peter Fiedler announced his resignation after many hard working years on the IRBC. The IRBC members will greatly miss Peter on the IRBC. Peter will be replaced soon with another STACK representative. Good Winds Peter!

On 30 June 2006, AJSKA announced that Masanobu Komuro is the second AJSKA representative on the IRBC. Welcome aboard Komuro-san!

The present IRBC members are:

AJSKA Fumiaki Tatsuma Masanobu Komuro

AKA John Barresi Mike Huff STACK John Mitchell t.b.a.
